

When making an annotation make sure you are answering those questions:

1. The article's thesis statement and purpose of research,
2. The method(s) used to gather valid evidence to support the thesis statement,
3. The evidence and reasoning used to support the thesis statement,
4. How the source fits into your research / how you will use it in your research.